DENOUNCES AUTHORITIES.

Father Reichlin Believes in the Innocence of Father Walser.

Lorain, O., May 4.—The Rev. Charles Reichlin, pastor of St. Joseph's church in this city and brother of Agatha Reichlin, who was murdered last Tuesday night, made a sensational denunciation of the authorities for the arrest of Rev. Father Walser for the murder of Reichlin's sister. The occasion was at the services of that church and was made from the steps of the altar. Father Reichlin said:

"I am sorry to see that Father Walser is connected with the murder of my sister. I am sorry because I am convinced before God that he is absolutely innocent and no matter how strong public feeling is, how spiteful how atrocious that public opinion is, it cannot make him out a murderer, the murderer of my sister. The time will come when I will give my version of the bloodhound story upon which the character of public opinion seems to be based."

The scene of the murder was the point of interest for thousands of callers at the Reichlin home where the body was in view until it was taken into St. Joseph's church at 3 o'clock, where the vespers for the dead were sung by Rev. Charles Reichlin and two assisting priests.

The authorities are not disposed to give expression to any views. Support of the belief that a burglar committed the crime was given impetus by the statements of several neighbors who had seen a stranger hanging around the Reichlin home for several hours on the night of the crime.

APPEAL PAPERS FILED.

Another Step Taken in the Keene-Harriman Fight.

Cincinnati, May 4.—In the suit of the Keene interests to enjoin the Harriman interests from voting the stock, held by the Union Pacific company, at the proposed annual meeting of the Southern Pacific company, the appeal papers were filed in the United States circuit court of appeals, but it is not known when the appeal will be heard by the full court. The application for an injunction against voting the Union Pacific stock, was refused by Judge Lorton and the Southern Pacific election was postponed awaiting the hearing of the appeal from Judge Lorton's holding.

STRICKEN PEOPLE WERE SEEK-

AFTER DAY'S VISIT.

Detroit, Mich., May 4.—A day of merrymaking and celebration by 1,500 Polish excursionists from Toledo was brought to a close by a frightful catastrophe at the corner of Canfield and Dequinder streets at 8:30 in the evening, in which at least seven of the excursionists were killed.

The excursion was given by the Polish Lancer of Toledo over the Lake Shore railroad. The excursionists left the train at the corner of Canfield and Dequinder streets in the morning and were met by a number of local Poles and Polish societies, who escorted the visitors to St. Joseph's church. An entertainment was held later at Harmonia hall. About 8 o'clock the visitors began to gather again at the corner of Canfield and Dequinder streets to take their train back to Toledo. There the Lake Shore and Grand Trunk tracks run out from the Brush street station on Dequinder street. Four policemen stood at the corner of Canfield and endeavored to keep the excursionists from crowding through the gates on to the tracks.

Despite their efforts many got past the gates and were waiting on the tracks when the special arrived and stopped at the crossing. There was a rush for the car platforms and the people crowded in from both sides of the train. The Grand Trunk track is only a few feet to the west of the Lake Shore rails and it was crowded with the excursionists who were boarding their train on that side.

Suddenly out of the darkness came the Grand Trunk Chicago and New York express known as the Pan-American flyer. It plowed through the mass of people, throwing them to both sides of the track, bruised and maimed and ground a number of them under the wheels.

No Warning Given.

Patrolman John Schulte, John Shinda, a prominent local Pole, and a number of others who were at the crossing assert that the flyer's whistle was not blown, nor was the bell rung. No statement could be secured on this subject at the local Grand Trunk office.

The flyer was checked and stopped as quickly as possible and backed to the scene of the catastrophe, where for two blocks the track was covered with mangled and dying people.

Four of the dead were killed outright by the train and the others died after being taken to the hospital. The tracks are very dark below Canfield street and lanterns had to be brought into use to find all the victims. A neighboring coal office, several neighboring houses and the gate-man's shanty at the crossing were made temporary hospitals and the wounded were carried into them until the ambulances arrived a few minutes later. Every ambulance in the city was called to the scene and the injured were very soon under the care of the surgeons in the hospitals.

The dead are: Mrs. Helen Palicki, Frank Rosinski, Watson Ludwick, young woman, about twenty years of age, unidentified; man about twenty-six years of age, unidentified; boy about ten years of age, unidentified; boy about twelve years of age, unidentified.

About twenty-five people were injured and two children, a boy and a girl cannot be found.

A cry for vengeance went up from the Poles as soon as they realized what slaughter the Grand Trunk train had done. A demonstration was started against the engineer of the flyer. Someone shouted, "Get the engineer. Kill him!" And a rush was made down the track for the cab of the engine. The police had forestalled this, however, and an officer guarded each door of the cab. The angry Poles stood about and uttered threats until the flyer resumed its trip into the station.

PASSES QUIET SUNDAY.

President Roosevelt Attends Church and Takes a Horseback Ride.

Sharon Springs, Kan., May 4.—President Roosevelt attended the 11th Methodist church at this place Sunday and listened to a most instructive sermon, preached by a Presbyterian minister, Rev. William Carter of Kansas City, who came here for that purpose. A number of pastors from this neighborhood also participated.

A pleasing incident occurred as the services began. Two little girls were standing in the aisle near the president's pew. As soon as the president saw them he drew them into his pew and during the singing the three shared the same hymn book.

At the conclusion of the services the president shook hands with a large number of people. In the afternoon he went for a long horseback ride accompanied by Senators Burton and Long and President Butler of Columbia college.

Senator Warren of Wyoming and Civil Service Commissioner Foulk have joined the president here.

The town is full of strangers, who came here to see the president, some of them riding fifty miles for that purpose. A Sharon Springs admirer of the president presented to him a two weeks' old badger. The little animal is as friendly as can be and will be taken to Washington to join the growing menagerie of the Roosevelt children.

Denver Ready for Roosevelt.

Denver, Colo., May 4.—Everything is in readiness for the reception of President Roosevelt. Two and a half hours will be spent here and during that time the president will deliver an address at the state capitol and will be driven through the business and residence sections and through the city parks.

BISHOP HURST DEAD

NOTED METHODIST DIVINE SUC-

CUMBS TO PARALYSIS AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 4.—Bishop John Fletcher Hurst of the Methodist Episcopal church died here at 12:40 this morning.

With the bishop when he died were his daughter Ellen and a son, Lieutenant Paul Hurst of the Third United States infantry, who arrived only a few hours before his father's death. Another son, John L. Hurst, is on his way here from Denver, having been summoned when it was seen the end was near. One other son, Carl Bailey Hurst, is at Vienna, where he is United States consul general.

Bishop Hurst had been in failing health for nearly two years and for more than a year it had been recognized that a fatal termination of his malady was but a question of months. He was stricken with paralysis in London last September a year ago when attending the ecumenical conference. The news of President McKinley's assassination prostrated him and the shock brought on rapidly the decline that finally ended in his decease.

Bishop Hurst remarried a few years ago after the death of his former wife, but the latter marriage was not a happy one and they separated about three or four years ago.

COMES TO A CLOSE.

International Convention of Railroad Y. M. C. A. Ends.

Topeka, Kan., May 4.—The eleventh international convention of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, which had been in session here since last Thursday, came to a close at night. The date of the next convention will be left to the direction of the executive committee. No officers were elected, as this convention was held for the purpose of preparing plans for the further advancement of the work. It was decided to pay special attention hereafter to the work of the association on foreign railroads. The German state railroad presents an especially attractive field for efforts along this line, as Emperor William is greatly interested in the work.

Bad Fire in a Maine Town.

Kennebunk, Me., May 4.—The thickly settled portion of this town was threatened with destruction by a fire which raged for three hours among the mills and business blocks and which caused a loss of $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

CALLS ON THE POPE

EMPEROR WILLIAM HAS AN AUDIENCE WITH PONTIFF AT THE VATICAN.

ACCLAIMED BY POPULACE

German Ruler Enthusiastically Greeted While Traversing the Streets of Rome—Vatican Authorities Are Delighted at the Importance Given to His Visit by the Emperor—Answer to Present Persecution in France.

Rome, May 4.—Emperor William was received by the pope Sunday. He had a conference with the pope of forty minutes' duration and then returned to the residence of the Prussian minister to the holy see.

The day was bright and as the emperor and his suite traversed the streets of Rome he was enthusiastically acclaimed.

His majesty presented Prince Frederick William and Prince Eitel to the pontiff. At the vatican the emperor was received with military honors by the Palatine guard and a platoon of gendarmes and he was welcomed by the high dignitaries of the pontifical court.

The visit of Emperor William was returned by Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state, at the Prussian legation.

The ceremonies attending the emperor's reception by the pope were very similar to those on the recent visit of King Edward of England.

When Pope Leo was advised of the arrival of his guests the door was thrown open and the pontiff appeared. He was dressed in white, with the exception of a small cape of red velvet trimmed with ermine. The emperor advanced alone, making a profound bow. The pontiff inquired in French as to the emperor's health. Emperor William then presented his two sons. His majesty and the pontiff then retired to the latter's private study. The audience lasted forty minutes. At the end of this time the princes were summoned and spoke to the pontiff. The imperial party then paid a brief visit to Cardinal Rampolla.

The vatican is delighted at the importance given by Emperor William to his visit to the pope, and the authorities consider this visit an answer to what they call the present persecution of the church in France.

A state dinner was given at the quirinal. There were present 100 guests from among the most prominent people of Rome. The ballroom was used as a dining room. When King Victor Emmanuel arose to propose his toast the band played the German anthem, and when Emperor William delivered his felicitation the Italian Royal march was played, all the guests standing meanwhile.

A gala performance was given at the theater at night. The emperor received an ovation from the crowd on his way to the theater. Upon the entrance of the royal personages the entire house rose to the strains of the German anthem and cries of "hoch" and "viva."

KING'S VISIT TO PARIS.

The Picturesque Features Are Now Practically Over.

Paris, May 4.—The picturesque features of King Edward's visit to Paris are practically over. The incidents of the day were comparatively quiet, but they were still expressive of the renewal of the Anglo-French good will.

In the morning the king took a short stroll on his way to church. He seemed to enjoy mingling in the throng of church-goers. He walked briskly with Sir Edmund J. Monson, the British ambassador. Crowds of people gathered at the British embassy and along the thoroughfares where he passed and gave mild demonstrations of good will.

At noon Foreign Minister Delcasse gave a breakfast at the foreign office to his majesty. Among the hundred guests present were many notable figures in official and diplomatic life, as well as persons famous in the salons.

In the afternoon King Edward planted a chestnut tree in the garden of the British embassy in commemoration of his visit, and received the orphaned pensioners of the British institution, the cornerstone of which he laid when he was Prince of Wales.

At night a gala dinner was given at the British embassy to President Loubet. This was followed by a concert by the leading artists of the opera.

King Edward continues to manifest satisfaction with the cordiality of his reception here. A member of his entourage said that the king personally was not aware of a single unfriendly demonstration.

The decorations of a number of French officials by King Edward are announced. The members of the king's party have received the decoration of the Order of the Legion of Honor.

Although it rained at night the king's presence in Paris was celebrated with open air balls and street festivities.

caused a feeling of uneasiness until it was ascertained that the report was absolutely unfounded and that the Sunday programme of the royal visit was being carried out in Paris without a hitch.

The rumor that King Edward had been assassinated caused great alarm in London official and court circles. Anxious inquiries concerning the truth of the report were made and from Buckingham palace telegrams were immediately sent to Paris. The replies that there was no truth in the rumor brought intense relief to all classes of society.

MORE TROUBLE FOR CASTRO.

Two Revolutionary Generals to Operate Against Caracas.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Wednesday, April 29.—General Matos, the leader of the Venezuelan revolution, left this island Sunday and landed the following night on the Venezuelan coast. He proceeded overland to Barquisimeto, where he assumed command of a large revolutionary force. He will march inland and in combination with General Rolando from the east he proposes to commence operations against Caracas.

The recent defeat in the Rio Chico district of the government generals, Gomez and Ferrer, at the hands of the revolutionists under General Rolando has been fully confirmed. The government forces are said to have been completely annihilated.

FIGHT IN A CHURCH

MEN AND WOMEN ATTACK POLICE WHO TRY TO STOP A GENERAL SCRIMMAGE.

Joliet, Ill., May 4.—Men and women fought hand to hand together with each other and then fought hand to hand with the police in the Slavonic Roman Catholic church. The trouble was started by several women as the collectors were circulating through the church. There were 2,000 men, women and children in the church when the fight began. In spite of all the protestations of Father Kollar and assistants, the church members fought fast and furious with pieces of furniture, knocking each other right and left. Some one ran from the building and called on the police for help. In a few minutes a patrol wagon, full of police drove up to the church and the men hurriedly entered into the edifice, which was full of thwacks, din and turmoil. Bloody limbs and battered faces were frequent. A few men had been penned into a corner by a number of angry women, who punished them with clenched hands and books. But by the time the police arrived some of the combatants fled to the street.

As the police entered the church those on the outside returned to the fight armed with clubs, stones and revolvers. Those within left off fighting with each other and unitedly beset the police. Those from without fled into the patrolmen from the rear. Women and children cried out in terror at the sight and many men ran from the church or leaped out of windows. Then the policemen drew revolvers and threatened to shoot unless order prevailed. The frightened combatants ceased fighting and the policemen began to make arrests. Of all the persons injured, none had to be taken to a hospital. Many arrests were made during the day, but no one knows exactly who started the fight or what it was about.

CHURCH IS DYNAMITED.

Attempt Made to Kill "Anti-Policy" Negroes in Chicago.

Chicago, May 4.—The war which the negro preachers of Chicago are waging on "policy" culminated in an attempt to dynamite the Institutional church at 7825 Dearborn street late Sunday night. A negro mass meeting called to arouse the sentiment against the evils which the game is said to work in the colored population, had been held in the church and the congregation had been dismissed but a few minutes, when the dynamite was thrown.

The few persons who remained in the building were not injured. The explosion broke all the windows of the church and blew a large hole in the south wall. The shock of the explosion was felt for several blocks. The attack was not entirely unexpected, for threats had been made against the pastor, R. C. Ransom, who is leading the "anti-policy" crusade in the negro quarter.

KING'S VISIT TO PARIS.

The Picturesque Features Are Now Practically Over.

Paris, May 4.—The picturesque features of King Edward's visit to Paris are practically over. The incidents of the day were comparatively quiet, but they were still expressive of the renewal of the Anglo-French good will. In the morning the king took a short stroll on his way to church. He seemed to enjoy mingling in the throng of church-goers. He walked briskly with Sir Edmund J. Monson, the British ambassador. Crowds of people gathered at the British embassy and along the thoroughfares where he passed and gave mild demonstrations of good will.

At noon Foreign Minister Delcasse gave a breakfast at the foreign office to his majesty. Among the hundred guests present were many notable figures in official and diplomatic life, as well as persons famous in the salons.

In the afternoon King Edward planted a chestnut tree in the garden of the British embassy in commemoration of his visit, and received the orphaned pensioners of the British institution, the cornerstone of which he laid when he was Prince of Wales.

At night a gala dinner was given at the British embassy to President Loubet. This was followed by a concert by the leading artists of the opera.

King Edward continues to manifest satisfaction with the cordiality of his reception here. A member of his entourage said that the king personally was not aware of a single unfriendly demonstration.

The decorations of a number of French officials by King Edward are announced. The members of the king's party have received the decoration of the Order of the Legion of Honor.

Although it rained at night the king's presence in Paris was celebrated with open air balls and street festivities.

caused a feeling of uneasiness until it was ascertained that the report was absolutely unfounded and that the Sunday programme of the royal visit was being carried out in Paris without a hitch.

The rumor that King Edward had been assassinated caused great alarm in London official and court circles. Anxious inquiries concerning the truth of the report were made and from Buckingham palace telegrams were immediately sent to Paris. The replies that there was no truth in the rumor brought intense relief to all classes of society.

MORE TROUBLE FOR CASTRO.

Two Revolutionary Generals to Operate Against Caracas.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Wednesday, April 29.—General Matos, the leader of the Venezuelan revolution, left this island Sunday and landed the following night on the Venezuelan coast. He proceeded overland to Barquisimeto, where he assumed command of a large revolutionary force. He will march inland and in combination with General Rolando from the east he proposes to commence operations against Caracas. The recent defeat in the Rio Chico district of the government generals, Gomez and Ferrer, at the hands of the revolutionists under General Rolando has been fully confirmed. The government forces are said to have been completely annihilated.

MEN AND WOMEN ATTACK POLICE WHO TRY TO STOP A GENERAL SCRIMMAGE.

Joliet, Ill., May 4.—Men and women fought hand to hand together with each other and then fought hand to hand with the police in the Slavonic Roman Catholic church. The trouble was started by several women as the collectors were circulating through the church. There were 2,000 men, women and children in the church when the fight began. In spite of all the protestations of Father Kollar and assistants, the church members fought fast and furious with pieces of furniture, knocking each other right and left. Some one ran from the building and called on the police for help. In a few minutes a patrol wagon, full of police drove up to the church and the men hurriedly entered into the edifice, which was full of thwacks, din and turmoil. Bloody limbs and battered faces were frequent. A few men had been panned in the face by a number of angry women, who punished them with clenched hands and hooks. But by the time the police arrived some of the combatants fled to the street.

As the police entered the church those on the outside returned to the fight armed with clubs, stones and revolvers. Those within left off fighting with each other and unitedly beset the police. Those from without fled into the patrolmen from the rear. Women and children cried out in terror at the sight and many men ran from the church or leaped out of windows. Then the policemen drew revolvers and threatened to shoot unless order prevailed. The frightened combatants ceased fighting and the policemen began to make arrests. Of all the persons injured, none had to be taken to a hospital. Many arrests were made during the day but no one knows exactly who started the fight or what it was about.

CHURCH IS DYNAMITED.

Attempt Made to Kill "Anti-Policy" Negroes in Chicago.

Chicago, May 4.—The war which the negro preachers of Chicago are waging on "policy" culminated in an attempt to dynamite the Institutional church at 2825 Dearborn street late Sunday night. A negro mass meeting called to arouse the sentiment against the evils which the game is said to work in the colored population, had been held in the church and the congregation had been dismissed but a few minutes, when the dynamite was thrown.

The few persons who remained in the building were not injured. The explosion broke all the windows of the church and blew a large hole in the south wall. The shock of the explosion was felt for several blocks. The attack was not entirely unexpected, for threats had been made against the pastor, R. C. Ransom, who is leading the "anti-policy" crusade in the negro quarter.

STEALING A DOG.

Mr. Edwin Landseer's Experience With a London Fancier.

Sir Edwin Landseer, the animal painter, one time was about to put the finishing touches to the portrait of a dog belonging to a nobleman and was expecting a visit from his model when the owner arrived in a state of great perturbation without the dog. The animal had been stolen. After talking over the loss with Sir Edwin the owner decided to leave the matter in the painter's hands, together with a ten pound note as a reward for the recovery of the dog.

Sir Edwin's acquaintance with the dog fanciers was large, and he summoned to his aid one Jim Smith, who he thought might put him on the right track. He showed the man the picture and the bank note and promised that if the dog were restored no questions should be asked. Six weeks later Smith arrived at the studio leading the missing dog by a piece of string. "Here is your dog," said the artist, "and I suppose I must ask no questions. But now that the affair is done with you may just as well tell me about it."

After a moment of hesitation the man confessed that he himself was the thief. "You, you thundering rascal!" exclaimed Sir Edwin. "Then why on earth have you kept us in suspense all this time?" "Well, you see, gov'ner," was the answer, "I stole the dog, but the gentleman I sold him to kep' 'im so jolly close that I hadn't a chance of nickerin' him again till yesterday, and that's the truth, s'e'p me."

The Power of Thought.

Beware of what you think, for what you think, quite as much as what you do, molds your character. Wrong acts persisted in will wreck any life, but wrong thoughts have just as sure an effect. It not infrequently happens that people who live fairly good lives so far as their actions go do not feel it necessary to set so close a guard on their thoughts. These are hidden, and of what harm is it to occasionally cherish a vulgar thought if one does not allow it to escape in action? Of what harm to hate if one does not show it? To imagine oneself committing wrong acts if one does not actually commit them? But the laws of life say that every thought affects the whole being. As a man's heart is, so will he be. Evil thoughts gradually undermine the character, and some day these thoughts will burst into action which is irremediable.—Woman's Home Companion.

Signs of Death.

Of course the various physical phenomena which usually accompany the act of dying vary considerably in the early stages with the causes which are producing death.

To one schooled in death scenes the physiognomy which the grim destroyer presents is one not easily mistaken. Among the many signs of death that are unmistakable are the failing pulse, the coldness of the extremities, the change in the countenance as the venous blood courses the arteries, the skin grows clammy as the various vessels refuse to longer perform their functions, the eyes glaze, the jaw drops, fluid accumulates in the windpipe, causing the "death rattle," and finally the breathing ceases altogether.

Shaping the Verdict.

In a book on life in the Sierra Nevada mountains Clarence King tells of a cowboy trial of a Mexican on a charge of horse stealing. A jury was gathered in the street, showed into a room, and some time later a dozen fellows burst in demanding the verdict. "Not guilty," answered the foreman. With volleyed oaths and ominous laying of hands on pistol hilts the boys slammed the door with, "You'll have to do better than that!" In half an hour the advocate gently opened the door again. "Your opinion, gentlemen?" "Guilty!" "Correct! You can come out. We hanged him an hour ago."

Buddhist Prayer Wheels.

In the sacred city of Ourga, the headquarters of Mongolian Buddhism, are numerous "prayer wheels," inscribed with prayers and dedications to Buddha, and the more they are turned the more religious they make you. Many of the more devout persons turn smaller wheels held in the left hand while manipulating the large one with the right hand. Curious bits of rags flying above the palisades of the inclosures of the town are "prayer flags." No Mongolian house is without them—the more the better—for each one is supposed to convey a prayer to Buddha.

Don't Know Too Much.

There is nothing else a man so much needs as the ability to "make up his mind." Men who have crowded their minds have a great difficulty in "making them up," and indecision is the fatal consequence. He who knows a little and knows how to apply it is more fortunate than those with a superior culture which paralyzes their action.—Boston Globe.

The Observant Youth.

The pompous new resident had been having a set-to with the smart boy of the neighborhood. This was the youngster's parting shot:

"Aw, you don't need t' think you're no whole legislator 'jest becuz everybody's a'ays presentin' bills to you!"—Baltimore American.

STEALING A DOG.

Sir Edwin Landseer's Experience With a London Fancier.

Sir Edwin Landseer, the animal painter, one time was about to put the finishing touches to the portrait of a dog belonging to a nobleman and was expecting a visit from his model when the owner arrived in a state of great perturbation without the dog. The animal had been stolen. After talking over the loss with Sir Edwin the owner decided to leave the matter in the painter's hands, together with a ten pound note as a reward for the recovery of the dog.

Sir Edwin's acquaintance with the dog fanciers was large, and he summoned to his aid one John Smith, who he thought might put him on the right track. He showed the man the picture and the bank note and promised that if the dog were restored no questions should be asked. Six weeks later Smith arrived at the studio leading the missing dog by a piece of string. "Here is your dog," said the artist, "and I suppose I must ask no questions. But now that the affair is done with you may just as well tell me about it."

After a moment of hesitation the man confessed that he himself was the thief. "You, you thundering rascal!" exclaimed Sir Edwin. "Then why on earth have you kept us in suspense all this time?" "Well, you see, governor," was the answer, "I stole the dog, but the gentleman I sold him to kept 'im so jolly close that I hadn't a chance of nipping him again till yesterday, and that's the truth, s'elp me."

The Power of Thought.

Beware of what you think, for what you think, quite as much as what you do, molds your character. Wrong acts persisted in will wreck any life, but wrong thoughts have just as sure an effect. It not infrequently happens that people who live fairly good lives so far as their actions go do not feel it necessary to set so close a guard on their thoughts. These are hidden, and of what harm is it to occasionally cherish a vulgar thought if one does not allow it to escape in action? Of what harm to hate if one does not show it? To imagine oneself committing wrong acts if one does not actually commit them? But the laws of life say that every thought affects the whole being. As a man's heart is, so will he be. Evil thoughts gradually undermine the character, and some day these thoughts will burst into action which is irremediable.—Woman's Home Companion.

Signs of Death.

Of course the various physical phenomena which usually accompany the act of dying vary considerably in the early stages with the causes which are producing death.

To one schooled in death scenes the physiognomy which the grim destroyer presents is one not easily mistaken. Among the many signs of death that are unmistakable are the failing pulse, the coldness of the extremities, the change in the countenance as the venous blood courses the arteries, the skin grows clammy as the various vessels refuse to longer perform their functions, the eyes glaze, the jaw drops, fluid accumulates in the windpipe, causing the "death rattle," and finally the breathing ceases altogether.

Shaping the Verdict.

In a book on life in the Sierra Nevada mountains Clarence King tells of a cowboy trial of a Mexican on a charge of horse stealing. A jury was gathered in the street, showed into a room, and some time later a dozen fellows burst in demanding the verdict. "Not guilty," answered the foreman. With volleyed oaths and ominous laying of hands on pistol hilts the boys slammed the door with, "You'll have to do better than that!" In half an hour the advocate gently opened the door again. "Your opinion, gentlemen?" "Guilty!" "Correct! You can come out. We hanged him an hour ago."

Buddhist Prayer Wheels.

In the sacred city of Ourga, the headquarters of Mongolian Buddhism, are numerous "prayer wheels," inscribed with prayers and dedications to Buddha, and the more they are turned the more religious they make you. Many of the more devout persons turn smaller wheels held in the left hand while manipulating the large one with the right hand. Curious bits of rags flying above the palisades of the inclosures of the town are "prayer flags." No Mongolian house is without them—the more the better—for each one is supposed to convey a prayer to Buddha.

Don't Know Too Much.

There is nothing else a man so much needs as the ability to "make up his mind." Men who have crowded their minds have a great difficulty in "making them up," and indecision is the fatal consequence. He who knows a little and knows how to apply it is more fortunate than those with a superior culture which paralyzes their action.—Boston Globe.

The Observant Youth.

The pompous new resident had been having a set-to with the smart boy of the neighborhood. This was the youngster's parting shot:

"Aw, you don't need 't think you're no whole legislacler jist becuz everybody's a'ays presentin' bills to you!"—Baltimore American.

DR. WARD IS NAMED

As Secretary and Executive Officer of the New State Live Stock Board at Its First Meeting Held Friday.

Dr. S. H. Ward, of St. Cloud, well known in this city, having been here on most every occasion when the Granite city Elks came up to celebrate, has been elected secretary and executive officer of the new statelive stock sanitary board at its first meeting. This is the most important position in the gift of the board. Dr. Ward will immediately remove to St. Paul and open an office for the board. It will be located in the capitol if possible. John J. Furlong of Austin was elected president of the board, and Forest Henry, of Dover, Olmsted county, vice president.

There were several candidates for secretary and executive officer, which pays $2,400 a year. Dr. S. D. Brimhall was mentioned for the place, and also Dr. Muller of New Ulm, but the board finally united on Dr. Ward. It was then decided to tender the position of field veterinarian, which pays $2,100 a year, to Dr. Brimhall, who has been veterinarian of the state board of health. Communicated with by telephone, Dr. Brimhall asked time to consider the offer.

Another meeting of the board will be called in about two weeks. An attorney has not been named and one will not be chosen until his services are needed.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

John Holengrin, Who Worked for Bolin & Wood, is Killed by Explosion of Dynamite.

F. C. Bolin, of the firm of Bolin & Wood, came down yesterday from their camp north of Duluth, bringing the information that a man by the name of John Holengrin met a horrible death in their camp on Saturday morning.

The man was engaged in dynamiting old stumps in the woods. He had taken two sticks and put one each in two stumps and lighted them at the same time and got far enough away so that there was no danger.

The explosion over, Holengrin walked bravely back to the stumps, thinking of course that both sticks had gone off, but he was mistaken. Just as he reached one of the stumps an explosion of one of the sticks of dynamite occurred and Holengrin was literally blown to pieces, his head, one of his arms and one of his legs being completely severed from his body.

The man's home is at Rice Lake, Wis., and he has a family.

BASE BALL NUBS

Brainerd 14; Royaltan 6.

The Brainerd high school team retrieved its lost laurels when it so badly defeated the Royaltan high school team on Saturday afternoon by the very decisive score of 14 to 6.

There was no time during the game that the Brainerd boys were uncertain about the results. Tasche was in the box and but two hits were made off him. The home boys batted McDonald all over the field, driving out some eight or nine hits during the game.

The Royaltan team was entirely outclassed and in one inning only were they able to score at all. Brainerd was up in the first and although two hits were slammed out they failed to score. Royaltan also failed to score. After the first inning, however, the Brainerd boys had it all their own way.

The following is the score by innings:

Brainerd, 0 3 0 4 0 0 7 0 0—14
Royaltan, 0 0 0 0 1 5 0 0 0—6

The lineup of the two teams was as follows:

BRAINERD	ROYALTAN
Boyle.....c.....	Batzer
Tasche.....p.....	McDonald
L. White.....1st.....	Skinner
Sanborn.....2nd.....	Batzer
Davis.....3rd.....	Lambert
A. White.....s.....	Dasson
Jones.....1 f.....	Boyd
Bean.....c f.....	Lisle
O'Brien.....r f.....	Sjoberg

St. Cloud has organized for the season and they will play their first game on the home grounds on May 14 with the Northern League Winnipeg team.

Brainerd has a new manager in the person of John Murphy. Mr. Murphy is one of the most enthusiastic fans in the city and knows all about the game. He is conferring with A. A. White about the lease of the park and Brainerd will see some good games here yet this season.

Next Saturday the St. Cloud high school team comes to Brainerd for a game with the local high school team. Either Tasche or White will pitch for the locals and Schroeder will be on the rubber for the St. Cloud boys. These teams are evenly matched and there should be a good game.

Rubber tires will be put on baby buggies by F. H. Gruenbagen. 78t1f

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER"

Miss Effie Ellsler appeared at the Brainerd opera house on Saturday evening in "When Knighthood was in Flower," and it is doubtful if there has been anything equal to it since the house was opened. It was a most delightful dramatic treat, Miss Ellsler captivating the audience. Mr. Seymour, as Chas. Brandon, the leading man, was also good as were the other members of the company. The scenery and costuming were all that could be desired.

THE DARKEST HOUR.

A complete full sized vestibule train, containing numerous passengers, starting from the center of the stage, going directly away from, but keeping in full view of the audience, growing smaller and smaller, until it becomes a mere speck in the distance, then vanishes altogether, only to reappear as it rounds a curve apparently many miles away, where it crosses a trestle over a deep mountain ravine which trestle is blown to atoms by a terrific explosion an instant after the train with its cargo of human freight has passed over to safety, is only one of the many sensational scenic surprises in Lincoln J. Carter's new play "The Darkest Hour," which will have its first appearance in this city at the Brainerd theatre next Thursday night, May 7, with the favorite German comedian, Chas. A. (Karl) Gardner at the head of a cast of carefully selected and competent players.

ROSE COGHILAN.

"There are two kinds of love, one for the woman you respect, one for the woman you love," says Paula in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," which Rose Coghlan will present here soon. The coming of this distinguished artiste in the most famous society play of the past decade will be a treat for the better class of theatre-goers. A first-class production and a fine cast of players are assured.

Grand Concert and Dance.

A grand concert and dance will be given in Gardner hall on Wednesday evening, May 6, at 8:45 p. m. sharp, at which time the following program will be rendered:

Instrumental music.....
Marine Band.
Violin Solo, "Love and Passion".....

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous
Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known.

This remedy is breathed through the Hyomei inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomei. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other disease and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomei not only kills the germs in the throat and nose but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It fees the mucous membrane from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

H. P. Dunn & Co. have so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that they agree to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

Deceased lived at Nunda, Ill., and the remains were taken there this afternoon for burial, accompanied by Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Wyman and Mrs. Anders. Brief funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paine this morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. G. Ferguson, of the First M. E. church.

Mrs. Wells was a lovable woman, a devoted Christian and a kind mother and she will always be held in kindly remembrance by those who met her during her stay in this city. She was a member of the First M. E. church, of Nunda, Ill., where she has spent most of her life. Her husband died many years ago at that place and she will be laid to rest beside him.

Deceased leaves one son, Peter Wells, of Nunda, and three daughters Mrs. Wyman, of Milwaukee, Mrs. Frank A. Huniston, of Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. C. H. Paine of this city.

HARD ON MOTHER.

Some Brainerd Mothers Know Well How Hard It Is

A mother's cares are never light, and its no wonder. Backache and other kidney ills increase her daily burden. There is one sure way to make the burden light. Let a Brainerd mother show you how.

Mrs. Chris Henson, of 185 Oak St., says: "My little boy aged about 6 years was afflicted with kidney weakness. Like all such cases it was very troublesome at night. I gave him Doan's Kidney Pills and he gave no further evidence of the trouble. For this reason I give this remedy my endorsement."

Sold for 5 cents a box, at H. P. Dunn & Co. and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The Ladies' Musical Club held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Irma Hartley, Saturday afternoon, May 2. This, according to the constitution, is the first meeting in May and is held at this time in order that work may be well planned for next season. As the members and guests of the day arrived the retiring officers assisted by the hostess stood in line to receive them.

The following musical program was rendered:

The president gave short address after which the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The results of the few months since the organization, being listened to with much satisfaction.

The members are looking forward with enthusiasm to the possibility of obtaining Miss Ella Priebe for a piano recital the last of May.

Mrs. W. H. Gemmell, the president of the club, refused nomination again. It was understood by those who at first were instrumental in the organization of the club, that it would be possible for her to assist them in this office only until the annual meeting. Mrs. C. M. Patek was chosen president, and with the exception of this change, the other officers were reinstated. Tea was served in the dining room and a delightful social hour was spent. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Snyder and Miss Davis of the social committee.

DR. WARD IS NAMED

As Secretary and Executive Officer of the New State Live Stock Board at Its First Meeting Held Friday.

Dr. S. H. Ward, of St. Cloud, well known in this city, having been here on most every occasion when the Granite city Elks came up to celebrate, has been elected secretary and executive officer of the new statelive stock sanitary board at its first meeting. This is the most important position in the gift of the board. Dr. Ward will immediately remove to St. Paul and open an office for the board. It will be located in the capitol if possible. John J. Furlong of Austin was elected president of the board, and Forest Henry, of Dover, Olmsted county, vice president. There were several candidates for secretary and executive officer, which pays $2,400 a year. Dr. S. D. Brimhall was mentioned for the place, and also Dr. Muller of New Ulm, but the board finally united on Dr. Ward. It was then decided to tender the position of field veterinarian, which pays $2,100 a year, to Dr. Brimhall, who has been veterinarian of the state board of health. Communicated with by telephone, Dr. Brimhall asked time to consider the offer. Another meeting of the board will be called in about two weeks. An attorney has not been named and one will not be chosen until his services are needed.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

John Holengrin, Who Worked for Bolin & Wood, is Killed by Explosion of Dynamite.

F. C. Bolin, of the firm of Bolin & Wood, came down yesterday from their camp north of Duluth, bringing the information that a man by the name of John Holengrin met a horrible death in their camp on Saturday morning.

The man was engaged in dynamiting old stumps in the woods. He had taken two sticks and put one each in two stumps and lighted them at the same time and got far enough away so that there was no danger.

The explosion over, Holengrin walked bravely back to the stumps, thinking of course that both sticks had gone off, but he was mistaken. Just as he reached one of the stumps an explosion of one of the sticks of dynamite occurred and Holengrin was literally blown to pieces, his head, one of his arms and one of his legs being completely severed from his body.

The man's home is at Rice Lake, Wis., and he has a family.

Brainerd 14; Royaltan 6.

The Brainerd high school team retrieved its lost laurels when it so badly defeated the Royaltan high school team on Saturday afternoon by the very decisive score of 14 to 6.

There was no time during the game that the Brainerd boys were uncertain about the results. Tasche was in the box and but two hits were made off him. The home boys batted McDonald all over the field, driving out some eight or nine hits during the game.

The Royaltan team was entirely outclassed and in one inning only were they able to score at all. Brainerd was up in the first and although two hits were slammed out they failed to score. Royaltan also failed to score. After the first inning, however, the Brainerd boys had it all their own way.

The following is the score by innings:

Royaltan, 0 0 0 0 1 5 0 0 0—6

The lineup of the two teams was as follows:

BRAINERD	ROYALTAN
Boyle.....	Batzler
Tasche.....	McDonald
L. White.....	Skinner
Sanborn.....	2nd.....
Davis.....	3rd.....
A. White.....	Lambert
Jones.....	Dasson
Beane.....	Boyd
O'Brien.....	Lisle
	Sjobeng

St. Cloud has organized for the season and they will play their first game on the home grounds on May 14 with the Northern League Winnipeg team.

Brainerd has a new manager in the person of John Murphy. Mr. Murphy is one of the most enthusiastic fans in the city and knows all about the game. He is conferring with A. A. White about the lease of the park and Brainerd will see some good games here yet this season.

Next Saturday the St. Cloud high school team comes to Brainerd for a game with the local high school team. Either Tasche or White will pitch for the locals and Schroeder will be on the rubber for the St. Cloud boys. These teams are evenly matched and there should be a good game.

Rubber tires will be put on baby buggies by F. H. Gruenbaugh. 781f

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER"

Miss Effie Ellsler appeared at the Brainerd opera house on Saturday evening in "When Knighthood was in Flower," and it is doubtful if there has been anything equal to it since the house was opened. It was a most delightful dramatic treat, Miss Ellsler captivating the audience. Mr. Seymour, as Chas. Brandon, the leading man, was also good as were the other members of the company. The scenery and costuming were all that could be desired.

"THE DARKEST HOUR."

A complete full sized vestibule train, containing numerous passengers, starting from the center of the stage, going directly away from, but keeping in full view of the audience, growing smaller and smaller, until it becomes a mere speck in the distance, then vanishes altogether, only to reappear as it rounds a curve apparently many miles away, where it crosses a trestle over a deep mountain ravine which trestle is blown to atoms by a terrific explosion an instant after the train with its cargo of human freight has passed over to safety, is only one of the many sensational scenic surprises in Lincoln J. Carter's new play "The Darkest Hour," which will have its first appearance in this city at the Brainerd theatre next Thursday night, May 7, with the favorite German comedian, Chas. A. (Karl) Gardner at the head of a cast of carefully selected and competent players.

ROSE COGHLAN.

"There are two kinds of love, one for the woman you respect, one for the woman you love," says Paula in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," which Rose Coghlan will present here soon. The coming of this distinguished artiste in the most famous society play of the past decade will be a treat for the better class of theatre-goers. A first-class production and a fine cast of players are assured.

Grand Concert and Dance.

A grand concert and dance will be given in Gardner hall on Wednesday evening, May 6, at 8:45 p. m. sharp, at which time the following program will be rendered:

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hyomei was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known.

This remedy is breathed through the Hyomei inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomei. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other disease and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomei not only kills the germs in the throat and nose but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It fees the mucous membrane from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

H. P. Dunn & Co. have so much faith in the merit of Hyomei that they agree to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied. 4

WOMEN'S HATS.

Men, Says a Milliner, Are Keen Judges of Becoming Effects.

"Don't think for a minute that men know nothing about women's hats," said a milliner. "I don't refer to men who can describe feminine frills with the fluency of a doorwalker. I mean the average specimen, who doesn't know the difference between a toque and a Gainsborough. They are keen judges of effects—better than their wives. Men often come in here with their wives. The woman begins to try on all the hats in the shop. The man grows nervous. While madam will picoquette before the mirror and view the creation from every side before passing judgment the man gives his opinion without a bit of hesitation.
"Take it off," he will say. "You look like a Sioux brave with his war bonnet on!"

"He doesn't know why he disapproves. He couldn't describe the trimming if he tried, but he does know that it doesn't suit his wife. Without waiting a second he gives his decision, and his wife is almost in tears as she sees him turn down some of the prettiest models. But he doesn't care how they look in the window or on the head of Mrs. Jones or Mrs. Brown. He wants something that is becoming to his wife.
"At last she tries on the hat he wants. He knows it even before she has had a chance to glance at herself in the mirror. And I would say that his judgment usually coincides with ours."—New York Press.

Driving Twelve Horses.

Here is an arithmetical problem for you: If it is great fun to drive one horse, how much fun is it to drive twelve horses? It is quite a natural answer to say twelve times as much fun, but if you were to ask me I should say divide one by twelve, and you will have a more correct answer. Think of it—twelve horses to manage at once!
That is a sight I saw a few days ago, however, in the crowded streets of New York. The driver showed such superb horsemanship that people in the streets stopped to admire his dexterity. The horses were drawing immense steel girders to be used in erecting a skyscraper. Two men went ahead of this cavalcade to warn the cars to stop at convenient places for passing and to clear the street generally. Especially where a corner was turned was there much admiration expressed for the driver's skill. There he sat, as calm and cool as if driving an old nag down a country lane instead of twelve sturdy horses down New York's business thoroughfare, Broadway.—New York Letter in Pittsburg Dispatch.

Greek and Bulgarian.

"The struggle for racial supremacy between the Slav and Hellenic," says a writer on Macedonia, "a struggle as old as the hills, is here identified with and imbittered by the religious strife which rages between the followers of the Bulgarian exarch and those of the Greek patriarch—the schismatic and the orthodox parties. This animosity permeates and poisons all the relations of life, private no less than public. A Greek will on no account speak to or shake hands with a Bulgarian. Nor will a Bulgarian patronize a shop kept by a Greek. The antipathy between the two nationalities amounts almost to physical repugnance. It far exceeds any feeling of enmity that either of them may entertain toward the Turk, who has ground them both to the dust
during five centuries of the most unmitigated oppression imaginable."

Sunday.

In A. D. 313 the Emperor Constantine of Rome granted toleration to the Christians, and in 321 he gave imperial sanction to the observance of the first day of the week. The edict which introduced a new era in Sunday observance runs: "On the venerable day of the sun let the magistrates and people residing in cities rest and let all workshops be closed. In the country, however, persons engaged in the work of cultivation may freely and lawfully continue their pursuits, because it is not suitable for grain sowing or for vine planting, lest by neglecting the proper moment for such operations the bounty of heaven should be lost."

How the Butterfly Is Protected.

The brilliant coloring on the wings of some kinds of butterflies is a bitter tasting pigment, which to a certain extent protects those species from being eaten by their foes. Frogs will try to eat sulphur butterflies, and, after tasting them, will promptly reject them.
The brilliant colors may be produced in order to advertise the nauseous taste as well as to aid the butterfly in attracting a mate of its own kind. We may be equally ignorant of the latent social powers of birds.

THE WORK OF A MOB.

PREACHER AND CONSTABLE ARE SHOT AND KILLED IN A MIS-SOURI TOWN.

CONDUCT OF THE MINISTER

It Had Aroused the Citizens of Wardell to Frenzy, and After His Arrest
They Went to the Home of W. J.
Mooneyhon, Where The Object of Their Hatred Was Detained, and Killed Both Officer and Prisoner.

Caruthersville, Mo., May 4.—D. M.
Malone, a preacher for a sect known as "Sanctified" people, and Constable W. J. Mooneyhon, were shot and killed by a mob at Wardell. Malone had been proselyting in this county for several months and considerable feeling had been aroused against him.
A woman named Mrs. Frill, having left her husband, caused much agitation recently by living with Malone, who left his own wife. Mrs. Alice Malone, the preacher's wife, objected vigorously to this arrangement and Malone declared her insane and caused her to be detained in jail pending inquiry. This action aroused the citizens to a frenzy and a warrant was issued against Malone and Mrs. Frill on the charge of unlawfully living together.

Constable Mooneyhon Saturday night arrested both and because of the lateness of the hour decided not to take them to Caruthersville until morning, but instead took his prisoners to his home for the night.

Shortly after midnight there was a knock at the front door and Mooney-hon opened the door. He was shot dead in the doorway. A mob streamed into the house and seized Malone, dragging him out into the darkness.
Mrs. Frill frantically begged that no harm be done to him, but she was roughly pushed inside the house and the mob departed. Malone was taken to a wood some distance away and shot to death. The mob then dispersed. No harm was offered to Mrs.
Frill or to Mrs. Mooneyhon.

Sheriff J. A. Franklin says he has several clues to members of the mob.
It is not explained why the constable was shot by the mob, but it is believed that he was either mistaken for Malone or that the mob was angered because the constable took the couple to his own home after arresting them.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED.

Armed Farmers Take Them Away
From Officers and Hang Them.

Vicksburg, Miss., May 4.—Bob Bryant and Will Morris, the assassins of W. H. Legg, were hanged to the Yazoo bridge at Haynes Bluff just before daylight. Bryant had made a confession to officers who arrested him implicating Morris, whom he accused of firing the fatal shot. At a point near the Legg place 200 armed farmers stopped the officers and took the two negroes into a nearby thicket.
Robbery was the motive for the murder.

OBJECTED TO THE MARRIAGE.

South Dakota Man Attacks His Son-
in-Law and Is Killed.

Sloux City, Ia., May 4.—John E.
Krueger was killed by Paul A. Thur-
low, near Madison, S. D., Saturday night. Thurlow had married Krueger's daughter the day previous. Krueger had never seen Thurlow, but he objected to the marriage on account of religious differences. He attacked Thurlow with a revolver.
Thurlow returned the fire, killing Krueger.

BROTHERS IN A QUARREL.

One of Them Is Dead and the Other Is Dying.

Nelsonville, O., May 4.—At Sand
Run, a mining village five miles north of Nelsonville, Charles Dunkle probably fatally wounded his brother, John Dunkle, as the result of a quarrel.
Believing his brother to be dead, Charles shot himself in the head and died almost instantly. The wounded brother is reported to be dying. Both men were miners.

PLANNED BY THE MAFIA.

Indications Point to Society's Work
in Pennsylvania Murder.

Punkstown, Pa., May 4.—Frank Carfa, an Italian miner, was stabbed through the heart at Walston by a recent arrival from Southern Italy, who gave his name as Agheilo Batiste. Carfa died instantly and his slayer is in jail. The manner in which the murder was committed indicates that the deed had been planned by the Mafia.

FAMILY WIPED OUT.

Mother and Son Chopped to Pieces
With an Axe.

Ennis, Tex., May 4.—Mrs. Linneburger and her son were found dead at Bristol, both having been chopped to pieces with an axe. The husband and father, W. C. Linneburger, was subsequently found on his farm, four miles north of Bristol, with his brains blown out with a shotgun.

STEAMERS IN COLLISION.

British Vessel So Badly Damaged She Is Beached.

Seattle, Wash., May 4.—The British tramp steamship Robert Adamson and the Pacific Coast company's ship
Queen collided in a dense fog off West Point light house early in the morning with serious damage to both vessels, but without loss of life. The injuries to the Adamson were so great that it was necessary to beach her.

Loss of Half a Million.

Kharkoff, Russia, May 4.—The workshops of the Russian locomotive and gun works have been burned down.
The loss is $500,000.

FORMER FRIENDS TESTIFY.

Ex-Secretary Brown and Detective
Norbeck on Stand in Ames Case.

Minneapolis, May 4.—When the trial of former Mayor A. A. Ames for bribery was resumed during the morning Irwin A. Gardner, who swears he collected the "graft" for the mayor from abandoned women, was recalled for redirect examination. He declared that he had given his evidence without promise of immunity or reward of any kind from the state. He admitted collecting from patients of Dr. Ames for medical services, but swore that the "graft" payments were entirely distinct from these transactions. Asked why he did not turn the money he collected over immediately but retained it until $500 had accumulated, he explained that the mayor was imbibing too freely and was in no condition to receive it.

Thomas R. Brown, who was the mayor's secretary, testified that he had seen Gardner pay the mayor a sum of money in bills. He described the circumstances, corroborating Gardner's evidence, but could not fix the date exactly. He also produced a list of "roomers" he had found in the mayor's desk while cleaning it out.
This was after the mayor had left town. It was in the handwriting of Charles R. Hill, the mayor's captain of police, and presumably was the list of women who were paying for protection.

Christopher Norbeck, former police detective, now serving a sentence in the state prison at Stillwater for bribery, told the story of the graft and his connection with it. His evidence was largely corroborative of Gardner's.

CLAIMS MIRACULOUS POWER.

So Congregation Decides to Dismiss Columbus Pastor.

Columbus, O., May 4.—Rev. J.
Johnston was dismissed from the pastorate of St. Matthews Lutheran church, by the congregation because of his declaration made from the pulpit that he had received some new revelations on the Bible, particularly with regard to the baptism of the Holy Ghost and to faith in Christ.

The doctrine which he preached to his congregation last Sunday for the first time is that after earnest and long praying one may receive a real baptism of the Holy Ghost and that after that can heal diseases and perform other miracles by the aid of faith.

He started his people by declaring that he had by faith cured himself of a certain throat trouble with which he had been afflicted. Suddenly the trouble returned while he was preaching, and he was scarcely able to speak. He asked his people to pray with him as the devil was trying to overcome him and after ten minutes he announced a victory over the devil and his voice returned with its former power.
